

Where does VT excel at publishing in UT-Dallas journals?

VT excels primarily in Management journals within the UT-Dallas list, showing notable strength in Strategic Management Journal and Academy of Management Journal publications. There is also an upward trend in Management publications over recent years, demonstrating growing expertise in this area.

Where does VT need to improve to be more competitive with its peers on the UT-Dallas list?

VT needs to increase publication volume in Information Systems and Marketing disciplines to better compete with peer universities. Consistent publication gaps exist across most disciplines, indicating a need for strategic focus on increasing research output in these specific areas.

Where does VT need to improve to be more competitive with its aspirational universities on the UT-Dallas list?

To compete with aspirational universities, VT requires huge improvement in Finance and Accounting publications where the gap is particularly large. Additionally, overall publication volume across all disciplines needs to increase significantly to approach the research productivity levels of aspirational institutions.

What are VT's top UT-Dallas journals?

VT's top UT-Dallas journals include Strategic Management Journal, Academy of Management Journal, and Journal of International Business Studies. These publications represent VT's strongest research outlets and form the foundation of its current research reputation.

Which disciplines at VT are publishing best in UT-Dallas journals?

Management is clearly VT's strongest discipline in terms of UT-Dallas publications, showing the highest concentration of research output. This discipline demonstrates both the greatest volume and most consistent publication record among VT's research areas.